

SCL-----SOUNDTRACK CORRESPONDENCE LIST.

6-90 UPDATE

Neat logo, huh? That's the tentative title of what's going on so far. The following is a list of those of you who have written me with a specific interest in soundtracks. For the time being I'll send out newsletters and lists like these every once and a while. The previous list was based on whoever wrote me first and, more importantly, whose letter was at the top of the pile. This list is alphabetical.

The way I saw it, pretty much everything a soundtrack fan would want was out there (again, check out the Goldsmith Society)-- except for one thing, that is: OTHER PEOPLE TO TALK TO! Without other people to discuss the music, it was like an empty hobby.

That is where the SCL will fill that gap, and if anyone wants to do a soundtrack activity on your own, you are welcome to the list (unless you send out a @#$% chain letter, that is). Here then, is the first official list-- enjoy!

GOOD SOUNDTRACK STORES I KNOW OF OFF-HAND

1) Movie Boulevard, Baker House, 9 New York Rd. Leeds LS2 9FF, ENG. (0532)-422988

2) Footlight Records, 212-533-1572 (Not primarily mail order-- they're a regular record store in New York, but they have a lot of good stuff. Call for info.)

ON THE SCREENS

Goldsmith is tuning up Total Recall and Gremlins 2-- sounds good! Elfman is scoring Dick Tracy (his last was Night Breed)-- he may do the Roger Rabbit cartoon as well. At any rate, he'll be competing with three Stephen Sondheim songs sung by Madonna. Maurice Jarre is scoring Richard Edlund's 'Solar Crisis', and John Barry will score Kevin Costner's 'Dances With Wolves'. James Horner is returning to do Another 48hrs. Alan Silvestri has gone back to the Future III (he did the first two). ZZ Top has a song, 'Doubleback', in that film, but it's been relegated to the end credits. Leonard Roseman is scoring Robocop 2-- the last thing I saw his name on was Star Trek IV. A recent ST:TNG episode ('Tin Man') was scored by Jay Chattaway. He is only the 3rd outside composer to score an episode. George Romanis scored a 1st season episode ('Too Short a Season') and Fred Steiner scored the 3rd episode of the show, 'Joke Of Honor'. All other episodes have been by Dennis McCarthy or Ron Jones. On a sad note, Alien Nation: The Series, which has provided some very original music instead of usual TV drack, has been cancelled. Fox has apparently overlooked the fact that the show's 1st season ended with a cliffhanger.

IN THE CLASH

The soundtracks for Robocop 2, Back to the Future III, Gremlins 2, and Total Recall are on Varese Varatone 'CD's and cassettes'-- this may mean no record version is being released. Three Dick Tracy albums are coming out on Sire Records: (1) the Madonna songs (2) other Dick Tracy related rock songs, and (3) Elfman's score. Finally, Horner's Another 48hrs is coming out on the Scotti Brothers label (the original 48hrs had no soundtrack), while it seems Siva Screen is releasing CD's of his Battle Beyond the Stars and Star Trek III.

WANTED

Looking for something real bad but can't find it? Let me know and I'll put it in this section. To start, Michael Thompson is looking for a Predator soundtrack-- write him or me if you know of one. We should start a Detective agency for this sort of thing.
